A Sad Accident

A MAN'S HEAD CRUSHED!

A Hopeless Case.

A young native man, Akahi by name, employed at the warehouse of Mr. J. T. Waterhouse, Queen street, had his head crushed by a heap of corrugated iron falling on him this afternoon. His jaw and nose appeared to be broken. His tongue hung out of his mouth several inches and thick blood streamed freely. Dr. McGrew was sent for, but there is little hopes of saving him. Dr. F. L. Miner came on the scene later on and it was decided that the case was hopeless, though life was not extinct as we went to press.

A JUMP FOR LIBERTY. While the steamer Kilauea Hou was steaming past Waikiki on Tuesday afternoon last, bound on her trip to Hawaii, one of the native sailors elected to desert her. He accordingly divested himself of all clothing excepting a pair of thin pants, jumped overboard and swam ashore. He was not long at liberty, however, as he was recognized as a deserter, arrested, and brought before the authorities yesterday. He was ordered to pay costs and return to his employers.

BANCO DECISION.

A decision was filed yesterday in the case of John H. Wood vs. B. F. Dillingham on appeal from order of Judd, Chancellor, confirming with modifications Master's report. It was referred to the Master to ascertain the amount which the market value of the estate in controversy was enhanced by the permanent improvements put thereon by the defendant. The Master reported that there was a balance due to the defendant of $4,670.20.

The Court find that the amount payable to the defendant and the Woodlawn Dairy Company will be $3,620.20. Costs of appeal to be equally divided. W. A. Kinney and W. A. Whiting for plaintiff, F. M. Hatch for defendant.

SUPREME COURT.

BEFORE PRESTON, J.

FRIDAY, May 27th. Yim Quon vs. A. J. Cartwright in equity. Plaintiff is the lessee of a certain piece of land situate in the burnt district, Maunakea street, and defendant is the guardian of the minor children of A. J. Holt, owners of said land. Defendant had sued plaintiff in the Police Court for arrears of rent, which he alleges he is willing to pay after being allowed reduction for a certain portion of the land taken by Government for the purpose of street widening. The bill prays that defendant be enjoined not to proceed with the case in the Police Court until further order of Court, and that the rent of the land be apportioned. At the close of plaintiff's case counsel for defendant moved for a dismissal of the bill onthe ground that nothing had been shown to the Court that plaintiff was legally evicted from the por-tion of land claimed to have been taken by the Government, defendant relying on His Honor's decision rendered in Bradley's appeal in rewidening of Fort street wherein it was pointed out that certain formalities of law not having been complied with, that therefore the action of the Commissioners to award damages for lands taken was void. Plaintiff's counsel contended that sufficient had been shown to the Court that his client was not in the enjoyment of all of his land, and whatever irregularities there may have been in the mode of Government's acquiring land for road pur-poses, that plaintiff should not be
